

Item 10 Annual Meeting

DRAFT ANNUAL MEETING AGENDA

BAY SEDIMENTS: PAST A TIPPING POINT

October 6th, 2009
 The Scottish Rite Center,
 Oakland, CA

9:00	Welcome
9:10	How Humans and Nature Have Shaped the San Francisco Estuary Since the Gold Rush – Jaffe (confirmed)
9:40	Past One Tipping Point – What’s Next? Schoellhamer (confirmed) – SSC trends, CASCADE, SBSP work, anticipated long-term changes and implications for sediment cycling and water quality
10:20	BREAK
10:40	Dredged Sediment: From “Spoils” to Valued Resource – Johnck (confirmed)
11:00	Analysis of Sediment Cores: Uncovering the Past – Yee (confirmed)
11:20	Panel Discussion: Anticipated Changes in Sediment Dynamics and Implications for the Estuary - Schoellhamer, Jaffe, Johnck, McGrath (confirmed) , Water Board staff
11:50	Introduction of Audience Participation Activity: xx
12:00	LUNCH
1:00	Sediment Quality Objectives – Beegan
1:20	SQOs – Indirect Effects – Greenfield (confirmed)
1:40	Long-term Trends in the Benthic Community: Invasive Benthic Species – Andy Cohen ??
2:00	BREAK
	STATUS AND TRENDS UPDATE
2:20	Phytoplankton Trends – Cloern (confirmed)
2:40	Ammonia Toxicity – Dugdale ??
3:00	Pyrethroids – Inge Werner ??
3:20	Patterns in Mercury Uptake by Small Fish – Greenfield, Slotton ??
3:40	Emerging Contaminant Update – Klosterhaus (confirmed)
	Water Quality Summary – Davis ??
4:15	Adjourn